¹ The revised version of IRSS Constitution and Bylaws was presented at IRSS meeting held at IJCRS 2021. This version was proposed after taking into account changes approved by the executive and advisory board and the electronic vote of this version was completed and reported on the IRSS webpage on dd/mm/2020.

Student Member is a person who (1) registered at least once as a student participant of IRSS sponsored event, (2) renews Student Membership in on-line registration system available at IRSS Homepage before each of elections, and (3) provides a proof of full-time undergraduate or graduate student status to Secretary before each of elections.³

2.3 Honorary Membership Requirements

Honorary Member is a person who received and accepted nomination from President. Honorary Membership is a lifetime Membership. It does not need renewal prior to each of elections.

2.4 Resignation from Membership

IRSS Member may resign from Membership by sending an appropriate email to Secretary.

2.2 Student Membership Requirements

Student Member is a person who (1) registered at least once as a student participant of IRSS sponsored event or requested membership in the on-line system, (2) renews Student Membership in on-line registration system available at IRSS Homepage before each of elections, and (3) provides a proof of full-time undergraduate or graduate student status to Secretary before each of elections.

2.3 Honorary Membership Requirement

Honorary Member is a person who received and accepted nomination from President. Honorary Membership is a lifetime Membership. It does not need renewal prior to each of elections.

2.4 Fellow Membership

An IRSS member satisfying the following requirements may apply for IRSS fellowship

- a) 10 years of IRSS membership, or published a rough set research paper over 10 years ago;
- b) Great achievement on rough set research and contribution for the development of IRSS;
- c) Nominated by 3 IRSS fellows or senior members;

In order to be honored the fellowship, a simple majority (i.e., a vote in favor by more than 50% of all IRSS Fellow Committee members) is required for a candidate for an IRSS fellow to be elected.

The IRSS Fellow Committee include all IRSS fellows, present/past IRSS Presidents, IRSS AB Chairs and IRSS SC Chairs. The IRSS President serves as the Chair of the fellow committee.

The number of IRSS Fellows should be less than 3% of IRSS members

2.5 Senior Membership

An IRSS member satisfying the following requirements may apply for IRSS senior membership

- a) 5 years of IRSS membership, or published a rough set research paper over 5 years ago;
- b) Good achievement on rough set research and contribution for the
